

HOME HAPPENINGS

—St. Valentine's Day Saturday.

—Old Winter is on his way, any how.

—A good reputation is worth more than a coat.

—There is nothing more tiresome than doing nothing.

—It is now possible to get in an eight-hour day without the use of artificial light.

—The Farmers' National Bank of Canfield was the successful bidder for the school funds of Austintown township.

—An enjoyable social session was held in Masonic hall last Friday night after the work of the lodge was completed.

—The Girls' Club was pleasantly entertained last Saturday evening by Miss Helena Delfs at her home on the Salem road.

—The ladies of the Methodist church will serve a noodle supper in the church dining room Saturday evening from 5 to 7 o'clock.

—A largely attended and most enjoyable Christian Endeavor Society social was held Monday night in the Presbyterian church.

—The Presbyterian church has extended a call to Rev. Alexander Kelso of Pittsburgh but he has not yet signified his willingness to accept it.

—The Stars, a popular musical organization, will give the fourth number of the college lecture course Friday and Saturday evenings, Feb. 27 and 28.

—The Stithery Club was entertained Tuesday afternoon by Mrs. M. Kimerle, Mrs. C. R. Dickson and Mrs. H. J. Dickson at the home of the former on East Main street.

—On Tuesday evening Mrs. F. P. Kaiser delightfully entertained a company of young ladies at her home on West Main street in honor of her sister, Miss Myrtle Phillips, of Delaware.

—W. L. Shoaf has purchased of Peter Fullmer the heirs the property on Scott street occupied by F. R. Johnston and will shortly take possession of same. Consideration, $1,250.

—The Altimo Gas Co., is arranging to drill several additional wells. The first wells drilled show just as much pressure as ever, but if other strong wells are struck the price of gas may be reduced so that it will be cheaper to use in furnaces than coal.

—Mayor Fred Hartenstein of Youngstown gave an excellent address before a large audience in the M. E. Church last Friday night. Canfield people always enjoy listening to the able and genial mayor and never fail to give him a most cordial welcome.

—Last week a lot of people were crowding over the wonderful feats their hens were performing in the way of filling egg baskets. It is different now, however. Last week the weather was spring-like. Now winter is having an inning and the hens have ceased activities until a thaw comes.

—Thunder pealed and lightning flashed while it rained last Friday night just as though it were the good old summer time instead of mid-winter. But that was evidently a warning that cold wave was on its way for it arrived Saturday morning when the weather has been right crimpy ever since.

—While A. S. Lynn, a well known farmer of Canfield township, was making repairs at his barn last Friday evening he fell about three feet and broke both bones of his left leg just below the knee. Drs. Campbell reduced the fracture. The break is a bad one and Mr. Lynn will be confined to his bed for some time.

—Arthur Schermerhorn of Dublin was the first in this section to open his sugar camp. He tapped his trees two weeks ago and the first run yielded him six gallons of syrup. From the him six gallons of syrup. From the second run last week Thursday he got 16 gallons. He found ready market for the maple product at $1.50 a gallon.

—Attorney D. F. Anderson of Youngstown, who was a member of the constitutional convention which framed the liquor license law, in fact Mr. Anderson drafted the law himself, getting the best possible under the difficulties under which he labored, will discuss the license law in college chapel this (Thursday) evening. Mr. Anderson is an ardent dry and believes Mahoning county will drive out the saloons at the election to be held Monday, March 2.

—A joint meeting of the trustees of Green and Canfield township was held Monday in town hall when the matter of Canfield township extending the macadam road from Dublin to Toot's Corners was considered. Green township expects to improve the road from Greenford to Toot's Corners the coming summer and it is desired that Canfield comes to that point so that there would be continuous good roads to Youngstown. While no definite decision was reached, it is certain all parties are interested in the plan.

—Samuel Dickson has been appointed assessor of Canfield village and township by the county tax commissioners. Mr. Dickson has for quite a number of years most satisfactorily filled the office and his past experience will aid him materially in future duties. Canfield was fortunate in having two men well qualified for the place, Mr. Dickson and C. V. Mianer, who were eligible to appointment under the finding of the state civil service commission. In addition to his duties as assessor of personal property, Mr. Dickson will also fix the valuation of real estate in the village and township.

—Income tax blanks have been sent to all parts of the country and it is up to people receiving them to show what their income is. The penalty for failure to file list by March 1, is from $50 to $1000. The assessment this year is on but five-sixths of a year. The exemption for a single person under this rule will be $2,500 and for a married person $3,333. The exemption for the full year is for a single person $3,000 and for a married person $4,000. On all amounts above these figures up to an income from any source amounting to $20,000 the tax is one per cent. The amount of tax increases until those fortunate enough to pull down $500,000 in a year pay six per cent. Not a year ago in Canfield village or township will be caught by the tax.

—Thursday was bitter cold but relief is promised. The weather forecast is snow Thursday night and Friday, Friday not so cold.

—The Women's Missionary Society of the Presbyterian church will hold a praise service and missionary tea in the church Wednesday, Feb. 18, at 2 o'clock. An address will be given by Mrs. Samuel Luce of Youngstown.

—Printed matter weighing more than four pounds may be sent by parcel post after March 17 at pound rates according to an order received by the local postmaster. Book publishers especially are expected to profit by the new order.

—C. S. Dodd, who recently purchased the interest of his brother, J. R. Dodd, in the automobile, repair and garage business, has sold a half interest in the business to W. J. Parry, a carpenter-contractor of Youngstown, who will remove with his family to this place as soon as a residence can be secured.

—The township trustees have been forced to abandon the extension of the macadam road from Chidester's Corners to the Ellsworth township line this year as the expected state and county aid has been awarded to other townships. It is possible that the south road may be extended to the Green township line as property owners have offered to donate nearly $2,000 towards the improvement.

—At the meeting of Council last Thursday night the following gentlemen were selected for the volunteer fire department: Regulars—L. M. Cox, George Heckel, L. B. Curtis, J. W. Baird, Alfred Blott, B. M. Powers, Harry Baird, Roy Dickson, P. F. Myers, Chas. Harter, Alternates—Henry Corli, Gilson Sanzenbacher, O. A. Waters, Boyd Cronk, Arthur Konkle, H. W. Metzger, H. L. Weikart, F. E. Wetmore, J. R. Dodd, B. S. Andrews.

PIE SOCIAL

Under the auspices of the Rebecca Lodge Wednesday evening, Feb. 18, Lodge Wednesday evening, Feb. 18, invited Ladies requested to bring a pie. Come and spend an evening of pie eating and pleasure.

Safe for Babies, Effective for Grown-Ups.

That's Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. It has the confidence of your doctor, who knows it will give you satisfaction. W. W. Nesmith, Statesboro, Ga., says: "I have used Foley's Honey and Tar Compound in my family and have sold it in my store and it never fails to cure." Refuse a substitute. F. A. Morris, Canfield.—Adv.

Have Shoes Repaired

By Charles F. Credico, whose work is well known to Canfield people. He makes old shoes look like new ones and his charges are reasonable. Mr. Credico has his shop in the Harroff building on Broad street.

Dickson's Piano Contest closes Feb. 14. Help your friends. Special bargains in the dry goods department are offered for the last week.

NEIGHBORHOOD NEWS

—Rev. E. S. Smedley died in Kent last Sunday.

—Chas. Schofield, aged 60, was killed Tuesday at Hubbard while cutting a tree in his back yard. A limb struck him, throwing him to the ground, crushing his skull.

—In Warren the mayor has put a stop to the cutting of irregular paths through the court house park. No objection is made to people walking in the park, but the same trail must not always be followed. It is high time a halt was called on making unsightly paths in Canfield's park.

—Berlin township will vote on the question of issuing bonds for the purpose of improving roads Monday, March 2, the same day the county local option election is held. There is a strong sentiment in Berlin for good roads and there is little doubt that the proposition will carry by a big majority.

—Miss Harriet Hoyer is ill, reads an item in the Alliance Leader. The name Hoyer recalls a pioneer resident of Canfield. Half a century ago Joseph Hoyer was a leading cabinet maker in this place. With his family he removed to Alliance longer ago than Canfield people now in middle life can remember, and Miss Harriet Hoyer is no doubt one of his descendants.

—Raymond G. Sykes died early Wednesday morning from the effects of paralysis. Deceased was born in Canfield April 23, 1849, hence was in the 65th year of his age. He was a tinner by trade which led him into the roofing business. Years ago he established a roofing plant in Niles and made a fortune. About 20 years ago he left Niles and located in Chicago where he had large business interests. He is survived by his wife and three children. Funeral services will be held Friday afternoon and the remains will be placed in a vault built by Mr. Sykes soon after he removed to Chicago.

—A recent issue of the Ohio Farmer says that its protest against the demand of Gov. Cox that farmers' institute lecturers should either boost his administration or resign has "fallen on receptive ground. In fact, several readers have expressed their desire that this extraordinary and autocratic demand of Ohio's Governor should be met with a few 'sawar words.' Being governed by a high moral standard, the Ohio Farmer asks to be excused from indulging in violent epithets, but it insists that institute lecturers should not devote themselves to the political fortunes of anyone, their sole function being 'to carry the gospel of better farming to the people.'

AUSTINTOWN

Feb. 12—An enjoyable surprise party was given Charles Creed Wednesday night in honor of his birthday.

Mrs. Olive Hill is again able to be around after a painful illness.

A daughter was born last Saturday to Mr. and Mrs. Garland. The mother's maiden name was Lucy Smith.

Miss Alice Jordan is able to be about the house after a protracted illness.

During vacation the school children are having a grand time skating on the pond. The teacher was taken sick Monday with grip.

Mrs. Joseph Smith is slowly recovering from a severe attack of grip.

Mrs. R. D. Billings is spending a week here with her mother, Mrs. Chas. Hill.

Mrs. C. V. Baker is recovering from an attack of pneumonia.

Many new houses will be erected in Austintown township this year. City people want to get out into the country, and they know they are right when they come that way. We will be glad to help them. That will make more certain the building of an electric railroad to this place.

PUBLIC SALES

Having sold his farm, Martin Awas will sell at public auction at his residence on what is known as the Gideon Klingman farm, 3 miles north-east of North Jackson, Tuesday, Feb. 24, commencing at 10 a. m., 7 work and road horses, 4 Holstein cows, 2 heifer calves, 6 shoats, 150 Leghorn chickens, 10 ducks, 2 nearly new farm wagons, motor wagon, 2 buggies, surrey, 2 sleds, sleigh, double and single harness, grain drill, mower, 3 plows, harrows, cultivators, 2 party at Warren Force's in Milton got a pin in her throat and suffered several days before she succeeded in swallowing it.

In the United States senate debate Senator Gorman joined Senator Daniel in pronouncing the civil service system a fraud on the American people. Senators Hawley and Hoar defended the measure.
